Thank you very much for your detailed notes on the jute industry in India and Pakistan and the trade publications, which arrived in my office on Monday. I have read the notes with interest, especially the passages dealing with problems in the interpretation of industry statistics, e.g., the varying widths and weights of jute fabrics, and dealing with losses in manufacturing. The notes and publications cover the questions raised in our recent conversation very thoroughly, and I have no further questions to ask you at present.

You mention in your letter that you expect to be in Washington shortly. [REDACTED] and I hope to have the pleasure of meeting you again at that time and I would like to express again our appreciation for your help in furnishing information about the jute industry.

Sincerely yours,
